Labor Day at the Manor!

BBQ and a Dance punctuated the end of Summer

The last party of the Summer was another successful event, thanks to Chris with activities and the kitchen for providing another great meal! (Photos on the inside)

Former long-time resident Shirley Bagwell turned 96 and a photo of her small birthday party shows her still in good health and having fun with a few friends. (Photo inside)

Finally, don't forget that the Manor has it's own mini-theater upstairs in Jamison Hall, with movies nearly every day on a huge hi-def television. David does a great job finding obscure movies that are terrific, and of course there are a lot of old favorites. Plan a movie night out without having to leave the premises. Check out the slant board in the lobby for a list of movies with brief descriptions to whet your appetite.

SHIRLEY BAGWELL

Many residents of the Manor still remember and have fond memories of long-time resident Shirley Bagwell, who managed of the Thrift Store and helped out our Activities Director Chris with the hot dog BBQs and ice cream socials.

A couple of weeks ago, she turned 97 and a few people attended her birthday party at her daughters house, where she moved at the beginning of the pandemic due to health concerns.

As you can see from the photo to the right, Shirley is still doing well, and she sends her best to those who still remember her.

The final party of the summer was held in the Dining Room and was a fitting farewell. Once again, Sandra and Jenny led the field with their dancing moves to music by Snapshot.

RESIDENT SUPPORT

Got a question, a concern, or are you a new Resident with questions about how to navigate the Congregate Living situation of the Manor?

Betty Chackel's regular Friday meeting in the E Lounge may be for you!

Betty is a great listener and problem solver, the meetings are private and friendly, and she's been helpful to many Residents. Plus, it's a good way to catch up on news of the Manor and feel you have a voice that's being heard.

Betty's meetings are every Friday from 11:00-11:30 in the E Lounge Conference Room – which is adjacent to the upstairs Library.
